NEWS OF THE DAY.

The annual rise of the Nile is progressing favorably, the water being, if anything, higher than is usual at this stage of the rise.

A dispatch from London to the Political Correspondence says: "M. Lessar states openly that the possession of Herakleia has become necessary to Russia and ought not to cause war."

It is proposed to send a team of six picked Irish athletes to compete in the games at Toronto, Canada, which begin Sept. 23 next. The team will include the champions Barry and Parcell.

At Bedford, Iowa, yesterday afternoon, Ida Kimball, a beautiful 15-year-old daughter of a leading business man, shot and killed W. T. Giles, a prominent game dealer. She claims that Giles seduced her.

The commission appointed to make inquiries into the mental condition of John McCullough concluded its hearing of testimony and adjourned until Wednesday next, when the jury will meet to consider the testimony and render a verdict.

A large oil painting of the scene of the relief of Lieutenant Greeley's party at Camp Clay on June 22, 1884, by Alfred Opeit, of New York, has been received at the Navy Department, and represents the scene at the moment of lifting Greeley out of the tattered tent.

As the result of religious excitement prevalent at Carmesville, Ga., J. T. N. Hancock and his wife, a prominent game dealer, she claims that Giles seduced her.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox, through her attorney, Howard Douglas, of Cincinnati, has brought suit to prosecute the Church Musical Society of Cincinnati, for publishing a poem of hers as a song, under Colonel Joyce's name. Miss Wheeler publicly announced some time ago that she was the author of the poem.

It is estimated that 250 wine and beer saloons have been closed and their proprietors have been sent to the penitentiary since July 1, under the high license act, and that about 400—a quarter of all the saloons—will be shut up during the month. It is only small places, and the proprietors, who have so far succumbed.

Convicts in the Kings County (N. Y.) prison refused to perform work allotted them on Saturday. They protested the food served to them was insufficient and of poor quality. Eighteen of the ringleaders were put in dungeons and the rest of the strikers put on a diet of bread and water. It is believed a number of the prisonkeepers, recognizing the justice of their demands, secretly aided them in their efforts to obtain better food.

At Keegan, Canada, yesterday Riel's trial was begun. The prisoner being asked to plead after some hesitation: "I have the honor to answer the court that I am not guilty." Counsel requested an adjournment in order to prepare affidavits setting forth the inportance of having certain witnesses for the defense. Gabriel Dumont and Dumas were wanted from Montana, and it would not be possible to bring them. An adjournment was granted until to-day.

In the United States Court at Atlanta, Ga., before Judge Emory Speers, an important case was argued Saturday. William E. Dodge, of New York, for whom Dodge counsel is in that State, is named, brings suit in ejectment against seventy-eight farmers. Dodge claims to own all the lands in one entire county of Georgia, valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars, on which the defendants in this suit have lived for years in undisputed possession. The most eminent lawyers in the State have been employed on the case. Judge Speers withheld his decision.

The court martial appointed to try Paymaster General Smith of the Navy on the charges of scandalous conduct and culpable inefficiency met yesterday morning. The Assistant Attorney-General declared that while the Paymaster was not considered guilty of crime, he could be punished for the neglect of his duty. He said he knew how doubled contracts and had ordered contracts for one fiscal year paid out of appropriations for another, thus involving the Paymasters of the Government. He declared that Smith had acted in the very teeth of the law, had defied the law, and to say that this was not an offense, was to render officers free from all responsibility.

Mary Catherine Kuhn, a pretty girl of 18, shot and fatally wounded T. J. Bossso, chief of detectives of New Orleans, last Saturday. Bossso had made her false promise to her mother, "You will know how I have loved her to live with him as his wife. The girl showed the certificate to her mother, who said she knew how to double contracts and had ordered contracts for one fiscal year paid out of appropriations for another, thus involving the Paymasters of the Government. He declared that Smith had acted in the very teeth of the law, had defied the law, and to say that this was not an offense, was to render officers free from all responsibility.

A Predicted Comet.
Hartford, Ky., dispatch to Louisville Courier-Journal: "You may look out for a brilliant comet in the southwestern heavens early in August or the latter part of July," said Professor John M. Klein, Kentucky's astronomer, to the Courier-Journal correspondent last night, during a moonlight promenade with the star-gazer. "Upon what theory do you base such a prediction?" "I have noticed for several nights the unmistakable path, or orbit, of the comet. Look, do you see that great star in the heavens?" "Is it possible to see it at present as it travels in the orbit of the sun, whose brilliant light during the day prevents the human eye from seeing it?" "The comet will be in the latter part of July or August, will, however, bring it above the horizon during the evening hours, when it will be plainly visible, and when it will be of the first magnitude." As Professor Klein has heretofore predicted and discovered comets with unfailing accuracy, the fulfillment of this prediction will be looked forward to with interest by the scientific world generally.

The Truth of the Matter.
Says the New York Journal: "Every Republican officeholder knew in his heart of hearts that the Democrats came in that, civil service or no civil service, his official life hung by a thread. It has been so from the beginning, will be so to the end. Should the Republicans capture the White House next time every man who ever courted a Democratic girl will go out."

Why Roach Ought to be Rich.
New York, July 20.—The liabilities of John Roach will reach well up in the millions, probably as high as three or four million dollars, but his assets are equally as heavy, with this difference, that they are represented by steam vessels, mostly in an unfinished state. The "Dolphin" machinery, lumber, etc., would be very difficult to realize upon.

Editorially, the New York World says: It will be claimed, we presume, that this is the result of Democratic persecutions. For years Mr. Roach was a favored ship builder of the Union. He was not only protected in the tariff, but in the navigation laws as well. He had the favor of two of the most liberal Secretaries of the Navy the country ever knew. He drew from the Treasury millions of dollars for jobbery and repairs on worthless ships. He had the good will of the lobby and the rasals in high places. He ought to be a rich man, and it is a discredit to his shrewdness if he is not.

Elephant Shooting in New Hampshire.
KEENE, N. H., July 20.—Barium's large performing Asiatic elephant, Albert, who killed his keeper, James M. Sweeney, at Nashua on Saturday, was taken to a ravine in the suburbs of Keene this afternoon and killed. He was chained to four large trees, and the location of his heart and brain examined with care. Three sharpshooters of the Keene Light Guard were then marshaled in line at fifteen paces, and at the word "fire," the same number of bullets penetrated the vital spots. The huge beast fell dead without a struggle. He was valued at about $10,000, and the remains have been donated to the Smithsonian Institute at Washington.

An Indian Aided in Texas.
GALVESTON, July 21.—A San Antonio special to the News says: A private letter from Kinney county states that hostile bands of Indians, taking advantage of the withdrawal of the cavalry from this district, are at large on the frontier. The writer states that two Mexicans at the mouth of Pinto creek, right at Las Vegas, and about twenty at other points, have been killed beyond the Rio Grande near the border by Indians, and that a band of fifteen raiding warriors has been in Kinney, near Brother's ranch. So far as learned to date, the life has attended the Indian raid in Texas.

Praying to God for Miss Cleveland.
ALBANY, N. Y., July 20.—The reply of the Rev. Cessar Cucarini to the attack made on Catholic orders in Miss Cleveland's book, the good work done for hundreds of years by him, he said in conclusion: "Now, after so many centuries, in Washington, in the United States of America, an inexperienced woman gives to the world a book to show that the Catholic religious orders are useless and unnecessary for the good of mankind. We forgive her, and pray God to enlighten her and all others who live in the shadow."

Grant Gets Eight Hours Sleep.
Mr. McGRUBBON, July 21.—The fatigue that followed General Grant's ride yesterday afternoon was so great that he slept eight hours of almost natural sleep during the night. After taking food at 2 o'clock he was awake and ready for the morning, and only with good effect from midnight until after 4 o'clock this morning. At 8 o'clock he awoke, but is yet dozing through the forenoon. He is still in bed, but more frequent and somewhat weaker than last night.

Inhuman White Mothers.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—More white children are reported to have been sold to the Chinese dens here. Of course the parents of such children must be heartless wretches, and probably are very degraded people. Sincerely anything in the world more revolting than this abuse, yet it is probable that at present there is no law under which it can be adequately punished.

News From the Indians.
MILAS CRY, Montana, July 21.—The Tongue River Cheyennes headed by Chief White Bull, who has forced Black Wolf to join him. Two Moons and Brave Wolf are the leading chiefs on the Rosebud river. The Tongue River Indians have had a fracas among themselves; the result is not known. Major Logan reached here yesterday and will be joined by two companies of cavalry. Armstrong, left yesterday for his agency.

It May Be a Blind.
WASHINGTON, July 20.—Pity for Roach has in a measure been suspended to-day until it appears more clearly whether it is a strategic move engineered by Chandler, or a bona fide failure. It is generally thought the prospect will be embarrased, and that the upshot will be it will take the "Dolphin" as the easiest disposition of the matter.

Chicago Heat Kills Even the Hogs.
CHICAGO, July 21.—Last night was the most oppressive experienced in this city for a number of years. At an early hour this morning a light breeze came from the lake, which has blown stronger all morning. As a result of the intense heat yesterday, there was a large mortality among the hogs at the stock yards.

An Indian-Cowboy Fight.
ST. LOUIS, July 21.—A Little Rock, Ark., special to the Post-Dispatch says: "A fatal fight occurred near the Johnson ranch in the Indian Territory on Saturday, in which a Chickasaw Indian, named Ward, was killed, and two cowboys, named Johnson and Campbell, were wounded. The quarrel arose over the ownership of a drove of cattle."

The Prince's Diamond Pansy Blossoms.
NEW YORK, July 20.—Emma Nevada has left London for a month's holiday to Ems. Before her departure she received from the Prince and Princess of Wales a present of a brooch composed of three pansies with pearl centers, and a background of diamond leaves.

Professor Adams Accepts.
ITHACA, N. Y., July 21.—Professor Adams, the newly-elected President of Cornell University, has written Andrew D. White, accepting the presidency of the university.

Beef Quotation in Chicago.
CHICAGO, July 21.—Cattle receipts, 6,000; weak, good natives $5.40 to $5.90; common to good, $4.70 to $5.30; butchers, $4.25; Texas, $2.75 to $3.40.
Sheep receipts, 2,200; lower, $3 to 4.

Great Reduction in Livery.

BEFORE HIS HONOR TO-DAY.

A Chinese Doctor "Hun Fu," and a Row Over Bingham Water Rights.

John Hastings, for leaving his team untied on the street, was fined $1.

Austin O'Toole, for being a lewd and dissolute character, and being a common drunkard, with no visible means of support, was sent up for thirty days.

G. F. Simpson went on a "wool-gathering" spree on the public streets, and used profane language towards the officers before and after he was placed under arrest. He was fined $10 for his little idiosyncrasy.

The case of Charles Ching, one of the defendants in the opium joint raid, was postponed until 3 o'clock to-morrow.

The trial of See Lum Kee, the Chinese "medicine" man, who was arrested for keeping an opium joint on Commercial street, came up before the police court at 2 o'clock this afternoon. From the evidence adduced it seems that on the night of the 16th of the present month a young man by the name of John F. Spencer entered the shop of the Chinese doctor, and purchased from him twenty-five cents worth of opium, and then went into the back room, where the doctor had his bed and opium "lay-out." He threw himself on one side of the bed and the doctor on the other, and they were surprised by the police in that position.

The doctor having but one pipe, it is supposed that they were taking turns "bitting" it, although the testimony of the Chinese witness was positive that the doctor had merely bought the opium for his own use, and he had refused to sell Spencer any of it. There were circumstances connected with the affair that settled the guilt of the doctor conclusively. The fact that the doctor would not keep silent while the witness, Ah Soo, was being examined, and would continually prompt him and the interpreter in his answers, was enough to convince the spectators that he was guilty. The plea of weakness in his arms was his plea for allowing Spencer to take possession of the pipe and opium. The Judge found him guilty as charged, and will sentence him to two months.

The good people of the lower part of Bingham canyon, who live by farming and stock-raising, have been indulging in a jolly little row by themselves which has landed the two families of Butchers and Stringhams before the police court.

On the 11th of this month, Ammond Stringham, a boy 14 years of age, was instructed by his father, George Stringham, to go to the head of their irrigating ditch and turn the water upon their "water" patch. When he arrived at the ditch a young man by the name of George Butcher, who lives on the adjoining ranch, made some objections to the boy turning on the water, as he wanted to use it himself. George Butcher, being the stronger, knocked the Stringham boy down and kicked him, and as both families were watching the action of the boys and a young man named Harris was arrested and are having a hearing this afternoon. It is hard to tell what the outcome will be, but as the reputation of the whole outfit is rather unsavory, there isn't much choice between their testimony.

FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

A Rebel Attack on Kassala Vigorously Repulsed.

The King of the Cannibals Contemplating a French Stew.

The Cholera Course Continues Unabated Throughout Spain.

Riel Pleads "Not Guilty."
WINNIPEG, July 21.—In the Riel trial at Regina, yesterday, the prisoner being asked to plead, said, after some hesitation: "I have, your Honor, to answer that I am not guilty." His counsel requested an adjournment in order to prepare an affidavit setting forth the importance of having certain witnesses for the defense. An adjournment was granted until to-morrow. The prisoner was very quiet.

The Last of Victoria's Girls.
LONDON, July 20.—The Grand Duke and the hereditary Grand Duke of Hesse, Princesses Irene and Alice, Prince Alexander of Hesse, the Princess of Battenberg and Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg left for Darmstadt yesterday with Prince Henry of Battenberg, to be present at the marriage of the latter to the Princess Beatrice on Thursday. The Crown Prince, Frederick William and his family will also attend the ceremony.

An Attack on Kassala.
CAIRO, July 21.—News has reached here from Kassala to the effect that a large force of rebels attacked that place and made several desperate attempts to carry it by assault. They were finally repulsed, and the garrison at Kassala following up their victory, captured the rebel camp, with 2,000 oxen and sheep, and 700 rifles. The enemy lost 300 men killed and wounded, while the garrison's casualties were small.

Gladstone Like Unto Grant.
LONDON, July 20.—Gladstone no longer appears in Parliament. He addresses letters to his colleagues, which they read as though they were royal documents. His doctor has strictly forbidden his speaking, and allows his patient to converse only in whispers. He promises that Gladstone's voice will be restored in a few weeks.

An African Cannibal King Who Will Cook 1,000 Frenchmen.
LONDON, July 21.—A dispatch received here to-day states that the King of Dahomey, with a large army, has assaulted the French in the unprotected village of Koko. The King has captured 1,000 French persons, and he has his followers prepared to eat them.

Nearly 1,000 Cholera Victims Yesterday.
MADRID, July 21.—There were 2,471 new cases, and 352 deaths, reported yesterday. In Madrid twenty-five new cases and thirteen deaths were reported. These countries have invaded Gns Dalajart, Burgos and Almerin.

A Cold Day When Germany Gets Left.
BERLIN, July 21.—Four Arctic expeditions will leave Germany next winter.

Bob Ingersoll's Fortune.
Colonel Bob Ingersoll and his family have left Washington for the summer. They will make their summer headquarters at Marblehead, Mass. As the Colonel said: "No one member of our family would go where the others did, so we compromised by going to a place where some of us wanted to go." The Apache troubles prevented them from going to their summer place upon the Dorsey ranch in New Mexico. The Colonel has practically given up the practice of law and confined his labors mainly to a lecture field. He still keeps his law office open here. It is under the charge of Mr. Bush, a careful and painstaking lawyer, but the Colonel rarely appears in court. His western interests have turned out very well. His interest in the Dorsey ranch gives him a very good income. The wife is working, should free him completely from the confinement of the practice of the legal profession. It is the ambition of his life to be able to devote himself to writing. His splendid health and looks good for fifty years of literary work.

A Court Bound to Have Silence.
Admiral Worden, who is President of the Retiring Board of the Navy Department, is very short-tempered and has a very little patience with lawyers. The other day a case was being tried before him. The officer who was up for retirement did not want to be retired. He had employed a very eloquent and pugnacious lawyer to defend him. The Judge-Advocate-General of the Navy hearing of this, sent a Judge-Advocate down to oppose him. The outside lawyer raised a question of jurisdiction. A war of words ensued. Admiral Worden stood the clash of the argument about half an hour. Then he stood up very straight and fairly howled: "By—let me see the question of jurisdiction. This decision of the court knocked the civilian lawyer completely out of his wits. He has hardly yet recovered his equanimity."

An Australian person was taking leave, recently, of a congregation with whom he had not lived on the best of terms. "I do not regret our separation, dear brethren, for three good and valid reasons. The first is that you don't love me; the second, that you don't love one another; and the third, that God does not love you. You don't love me—my salary is several months in arrears. You don't love one another—or there would not be such a dearth of marriages among you. And God does not seem to love you as you ought to be loved, because there have been so few funerals among you lately."

A dentist advised a man to have a tooth taken out, assuring him that if he inhaled gas he would feel no pain. "What is the effect of the gas?" asked the man. "It makes you insensible," said the dentist, "and you don't know anything that takes place." The man took out his money. "Never mind the fee until afterward," remarked the dentist. "I wasn't thinking of that," said the patient; "I only wanted to see how much money I had."
